

STAT

January 13, 1958

Emergency File

10-99

The Honorable Jacob K. Javits
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Javits:

I have noted with considerable interest your recent trip to Europe, including your participation in the NATO Parliamentary Conference in Paris. The reports which have come to my attention as a result of your visits and discussions with foreign officials have been extremely interesting and informative.

Although I am sure that your schedule is crowded, I would appreciate the opportunity of discussing with you in more detail some of the aspects of your recent trip. If time permits, I would like to suggest that a time be arranged for me to call on you or, if you desire, I could arrange a luncheon here where we could have a discussion of your impressions.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

OGC/LC:JSW:mks (10 Jan 58)

Rewritten AWD:at

Distribution

O & 1 - Addressee

1 - DDCI

1 - ER via Reading ✓

1 - Legis. Counsel

REF ID: A6512

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------|
| RECORDED BY: | DATE: |
| NO. OF PAGES: | 1 |
| APPROVED FOR RELEASE UNDER E.O. 13526 | |
| INITIALS: | APPROVING OFFICER |
| INITIALS: | REVIEWER |

STAT

Travel Summary

After attending the NATO Parliamentary Conference in Paris, Senator Jacob Javits (R., N.Y.) travelled to Rome where he and his wife were guests of Ambassador Zellerbach. He then went on to London. At a luncheon which Ambassador Whitney gave for Senator Javits, and including Sir Hartley Shawcross, Sir Reginald Manningham-Butler, Alfred Robens and Ormsby-Gore, discussion centered on US/UK petroleum relations in the Middle East and US/UK policy toward the Chinese Communists.

The Senator then went to Cologne, Bonn and Frankfort where he met with Vice Chancellor Erhard and high German officials.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

The Honorable Jacob K. Javits
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Javits:

I have noted with considerable interest your recent trip to London and Europe, including your participation in the NATO Parliamentary Conference in Paris. The reports which have come to my attention as a result of your visits and discussions with foreign officials have been extremely interesting and informative.

Although I am sure that your schedule is crowded, I would appreciate the opportunity of discussing with you in more detail some of the aspects of your recent trip. If time permits, I would like to suggest that a time be arranged for me to call on you or, if you desire, I could arrange a luncheon here where we could have a discussion of your impressions.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director